NIB/NISH

- NIB/NISH stands for the National Industries of the Blind and the National Industries for the Severally Disabled.
- The Javitz-Wagnor-O'Day Act (JWOD) was established to ensure that people that are either blind or have a severe disability have the opportunity for jobs, training and independence.

- Under the JWOD program, Government employers are required to buy selected supplies and services from non-profit agencies employing such persons